

2019 Central University of Finance and Economics-Confucius Institute Scholarship Master's Program in Chinese + Finance/ + MPAcc/ +International Business/ + Engineering and Project Management

As one of China's key universities under the direct leadership of the Ministry of Education, CUFE enjoys the patronage of both the central and municipal governments, including the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Finance, and Beijing municipal government. In 2017, CUFE was selected into the Double First Class Initiative, a national project with the goal of fostering world standards in China's universities. The university is also listed in Project 211. In addition, CUFE is among the first universities to enter Project 985 Innovation Platform, whose objective is to promote scientific research of high-priority areas in the fields' top institutions. The university's applied economics is ranked No.1 by the Ministry of Education in the latest round of national academic evaluation in 2017. It was the only university in the field of finance and economics rated A+. CUFE is in prime location of Beijing, the capital of China.

Central University of Finance and Economics - Confucius Institute Scholarship is a scholarship program jointly established by Central University of Finance and Economics and Confucius Institute Headquarters(Hanban) in 2019. The scholarship provides funding for four master's programs: Chinese + Finance, Chinese + MPAcc, Chinese + International Business, and Chinese + Engineering and Project Management. Offered in Chinese, the 2-year master's scholarship program plans to admit 60 students in total, with 15 in each of the four programs. Applicants interested in pursuing a future career in the field of finance and economics are encouraged to apply.
